Under state law, the town is required to appoint an enumerator of births and marriages, the enumeration to be made in the month of January. For the last five years this work has been done by Charles E. Conn. Clerk Whipple stated that Mr. Conn. would not accept reappointment, and he suggested that the town should appoint a new enumerator.

OUR ADJECTIVE "PECUNIARY" STILL BEARS WITNESS TO THE CATTLE WHICH SERVED EARLY ROME AS MEASURES OF VALUE. In the early days, the value of things was measured by the number of oxen or cows which could be exchanged for them. The first medium of exchange was the cow. As the world progressed, the cow was replaced by the silver coin, and the silver coin by the gold coin. The gold coin was the first medium of exchange which was not a living creature. The gold coin was the first medium of exchange which was not a living creature. USE "TIZ" FOR PUFFED-UP, BURNING, ACHING, CALLOUSED FEET AND CORNS.

Why go limping around with aching, puffed-up feet—feet so tired, chafed, sore and swollen you can hardly get your shoes on or off? Why don't you get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" from the drug store now and gladden your tortured feet?

"Tiz" makes your feet glow with comfort; takes down swellings and draws the soreness and misery right out of feet. It is the only foot powder. "Tiz" instantly stops pain in corns, callouses and bunions. "Tiz" is glorious for itching, chafed, chapped, cracked, sore, shoe tightness, no more foot torture.

WESTERLY TOWN COUNCIL'S SESSION

Highway Committee Makes Report—Only Three Applicants Refused Before—Death of Mrs. Eunice Babcock—Watch Hill Garage Sold.

During December—Liquor Licenses Granted Three Applicants Refused Before—Death of Mrs. Eunice Babcock—Watch Hill Garage Sold.

At the regular meeting of the Western town council, Monday, Councilman Francis G. Haskell, chairman of the highway committee, told of the committee attending the recent congress in Worcester of highway commissioners and engineers from all parts of the United States and Canada. Mr. Haskell said that at an informal meeting of the council, the highway committee was advised to stand the congress and that much knowledge was gained, greatly to the benefit of the committee, which will enable them to judge better the construction of the highway between Westerly and Watch Hill villages. The proposition is beneficial both to the committee and the town and the visit to Worcester was money well expended.

Councilman Maurice W. Flynn of the committee told of coming in contact with the engineers of the highest standing and when it became known that the delegation from Westerly were seeking information on road building, they were met by the engineers. He told of an hour's session with a high authority on road building in Worcester, Mass., and that the committee had, under different conditions, only at big expense.

Councilman Charles G. Craig, the other member of the committee, reiterated the statements of his associates and made special reference to the value of the government exhibit of roads and road building.

Councilman Haskell said the committee planned to make a further investigation and to consult with engineers on special points before commencing the work on the Watch Hill road. These investigations and consultations will cost the town only ordinary expenses. It is the aim of the committee to be sure of being right before going ahead.

Charles J. Butler called the attention of the council to the accumulation of dirt at the outlet of the brook, that extends from Quarry hill to the Pawcatuck river and through his coal yard and which had formed a mound at the wharf property so that vessels could not get to the wharf. Mr. Butler said this accumulation was washed from the highways and he sought to have the town take the dirt out of the catch basin in Main street, through which this brook might flow and deposit the dirt, and he believed the accumulated material ought to be dredged at the expense of the town. He did not think he was responsible and that he might not be deprived from wharf privileges.

Councilman Flynn thought that while this was a natural brook, he believed there ought to be a catch basin to prevent the filling in of the river to the detriment of those who use the water front.

Mr. Butler said he brought the matter to the attention of the council to ascertain what could be done if the town did not effect a remedy, he would take the matter up with the war department, as there was absolute necessity for dredging the river at this point was paid for by the town. The matter was referred to the highway committee.

In accordance with instructions of the town clerk, O. E. Hart, the committee had communication with the public utilities commission, concerning the rates for gas and electricity. At a meeting of the United Irish societies of Rhode Island in Providence Sunday tentative plans were made for a social day in that city on St. Patrick's day.

Attorney A. T. L. Ledwidge advocated the granting of a liquor license to Charles D. Havers, who had made an application for a license with law and the rules of the town council. He said that if license is granted Mr. Havers would comply with the letter of the law and with any restrictions the town council might see fit to impose. He was a taxpayer, a good citizen, a proper person to have a license, and his place at 55 1-3 Canal street was a proper place for a saloon.

At the semi-annual meeting of the Christian Endeavor society of the First Baptist church these officers and committees were selected: Howard Green, president; Harold Kenyon, vice president; Clara Bray, recording secretary; Stella Johnson, corresponding secretary; Fredrick Green, treasurer; Herbert Munsey, Jennie E. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. L. A. Needham and Mrs. F. Stewart Kinley, and a son, Frederick P. Babcock, and a sister, Mrs. Anna Chapman.
